

Series of evening talks

by Winkie Spiers

at

Holiday Inn Express, Smugglers Way, Wandsworth, London SW18 1EG.

Registration from 6.30pm, talks start 7pm and finish 9pm.

Wednesday, 21st March 2012 - 'Talking Dogs' – an exploration of the body language of dogs a fascinating topic which will help you to deepen your understanding and enjoyment of your own dog. Being able to understand dogs better leads to safer and happier times for all.

Wednesday, 30th May 2012 - 'Problem Solving' – exploring possible causes of some common problems and easy and practical strategies to deal with them.

Wednesday, 22nd August 2012 - 'Mental stimulation & games' – how to keep your dog happy and stimulated at all stages of life taking into account normal and instinctive dog behaviours. This will include practical and fun things to do inside and out on walks to help improve their quality of life and your relationship with your dog whatever their age or state of health.

Winkie Spiers – works professionally as a dog trainer / behaviourist and Bowen Technique therapist for both people and dogs. In addition she speaks at seminars and conducts workshops in the UK and abroad on a variety of canine subjects for both professionals and members of the public. She is a full member and current Chairwoman of Pet Dog Trainers of Europe (PDTE.org), full member of Association of Pet Dog Trainers (APDT.co.uk) and member of the Association of INTOdogs. Her first book 'How To Handle Living With Your Dog' was published in 2008 by ShortStack Publishing.
